NEW STUDENT ORIENTATION

Department of Education

Mission Statement

The Tribal Education Department is committed to developing educated, confident, complete, proficient citizens who excel in any venture they pursue while maintaining their rich Anishinaabe Culture and Language.

College Application Process....

The first step is to apply to a college, university or program of your choice.

Most universities, such as Central Michigan University, have an on-line application process. (see example)

If you are unable to find the application process on-line, contact the school directly for details.

Applications will request basic information and any colleges that you have previously attended. High School or previous college transcripts will be requested.

Academic Orientation New Students - Fall

Academic Orientation for New Students Starting Summer or Fall Semester

Summer Sessions 2013
First Session: Classes Begin: May 13
Second Session: Classes Begin: June 24

Fall Semester 2013
Classes Begin: August 26

Orientation Program
Central Michigan University's orientation program provides you and your family with a comprehensive introduction to the university prior to your first registration for classes. Whether you are a new freshman or a transfer student from another college, you will get answers to your questions and more at an orientation session. New undergraduate students are required to attend orientation to finalize admission.
Orientation occurs in several phases:

- Freshman Orientation
- Transfer Orientation
- Campus and Community Life Orientation

In addition to academic orientation, campus and community life orientation for new freshmen entering in the summer and fall semesters will be held August 22 through 24 before classes begin on August 26. New freshmen are required to attend three specific meetings. You will receive a meeting and event schedule when you check into your residence hall on August 22 or 23.

Reserving Your Date to Attend
Upon admission to Central Michigan University, a Welcome to CMU brochure is mailed to you which includes information regarding payment of the new student orientation fee. After the $175 fee is paid and processed by CMU, you will be able to access our online reservation system to choose an orientation date which fits your

* MCHC has an institutional withdrawal policy which states that MCHC will drop a student from a class if *
* during the first two weeks of the semester he/she never attends, quits attending, or does not engage *
* in academic-related activity. Students will receive a grade of "W" for any dropped classes, may have * * their Financial Aid impacted by that semester, and may owe a balance for their dropped classes. If *
* you do not plan on attending, make sure you follow correct drop procedures prior to the refund deadline. *
